BEAT LAST DRIVE'S TOTAL.

Real Estate Division's Subscriptions New $3,703,600.

With total subscriptions of $3,703,600 the Real Estate division of the Fourth Liberty Loan Committee passed yesterday the amount which the division obtained in its four weeks drive toward the Third Liberty Loan six months ago. Despite the absence of any unusually laigs subscriptions yesterday the division nearly maintained its average for the last ten days with a total of $313,150 for the day.

for the day.

Alfred E. Marling, chairman of the division, made an especial appeal yes-terday to the patriotism of the small property owner, asking him not to wait until a canvasser comes around to take his subscription but to come forward himself without further solicitation and make his subscription of one-half of 1 per cent, of his property value.
"This." Mr. Marling said, "would be the very best answer the small property owner could make to the Kaiser's peace offering."

Subscription taking yesterday was enlivened by team competition for the directors box at the Hippodrome, offered by Laurence McGuire to the team getting the largest number of subscriptions during the day. Frederick Fox and his associates won the prize with 103 separate subscriptions. Their district covers the section between Canal and Fourteenth streets east of Broadway. The team captained by Mark Rafalsky and Ewin Zittel turned in sixty-sever and Ewin Zittel turned in sixty-sections.

Bankers were very prominent in yesterday's subscription list. J. P. Morgan & Co. won the right to fly the Real Estate Honor Flag in front of their building by subscribing $25,000 and the First National Bank entered its Wall street and Broadway building with a subscription of $11,200. The New York $100,000, the Bank of New York, $5,000 and the Equitable Trust Company earned an honor flag with a $12,000 subscription.

For the Chesebrough Building $21,000 was subscribed and for 30 Broad street $11,400. Some of the other interesting subscriptions were: Charles F. Noyes Company, $5,000; Arnstein & Levy, $10,000; Ellas Kempner, $5,000; Merchant Marine Headquarters (old Delmonico's), $2,500; 30 Wall street, Isolin & Co., $5,250; Singer Manufacturing Company, $10,000; Peter R. Weller, $10,000; Henry Morgenthau, $10,000; Benjamin Mordecai, $10,000; the Durham Realty Company, through B. N. Duke, to cover six buildings, $20,000; estate of Charles F. Hoffman, $10,000. At the present rate of $370,000 a day At the present rate of $370,000 a day the Real Estate division will go far over its quota of $5,000,000, but in order to obtain the $10,000,000 which it has established for itself a much higher rate will have to be maintained, and it to this number that the leaders of
